

Slough Children First's guide to Family Group Conferences for children

A vision for you to be Happy, Safe & Loved, Thriving!

We will help your family come together to make a plan that keeps you safe and happy.

What is a Family Group Conference?

It is a meeting for you, your family and people close to you, to talk about what they can do to keep you safe and happy.

My Family Group Conference person

Name

I am here to listen to you

I am here to talk to you about you and your family

I am here to answer any questions you have about the conference

I am here to help you share your thoughts and feelings at the conference

We will talk about:

What makes you happy

What you enjoy doing with your family

What makes you feel sad

What you would like to do with your family

How can you share what you want?

You can write

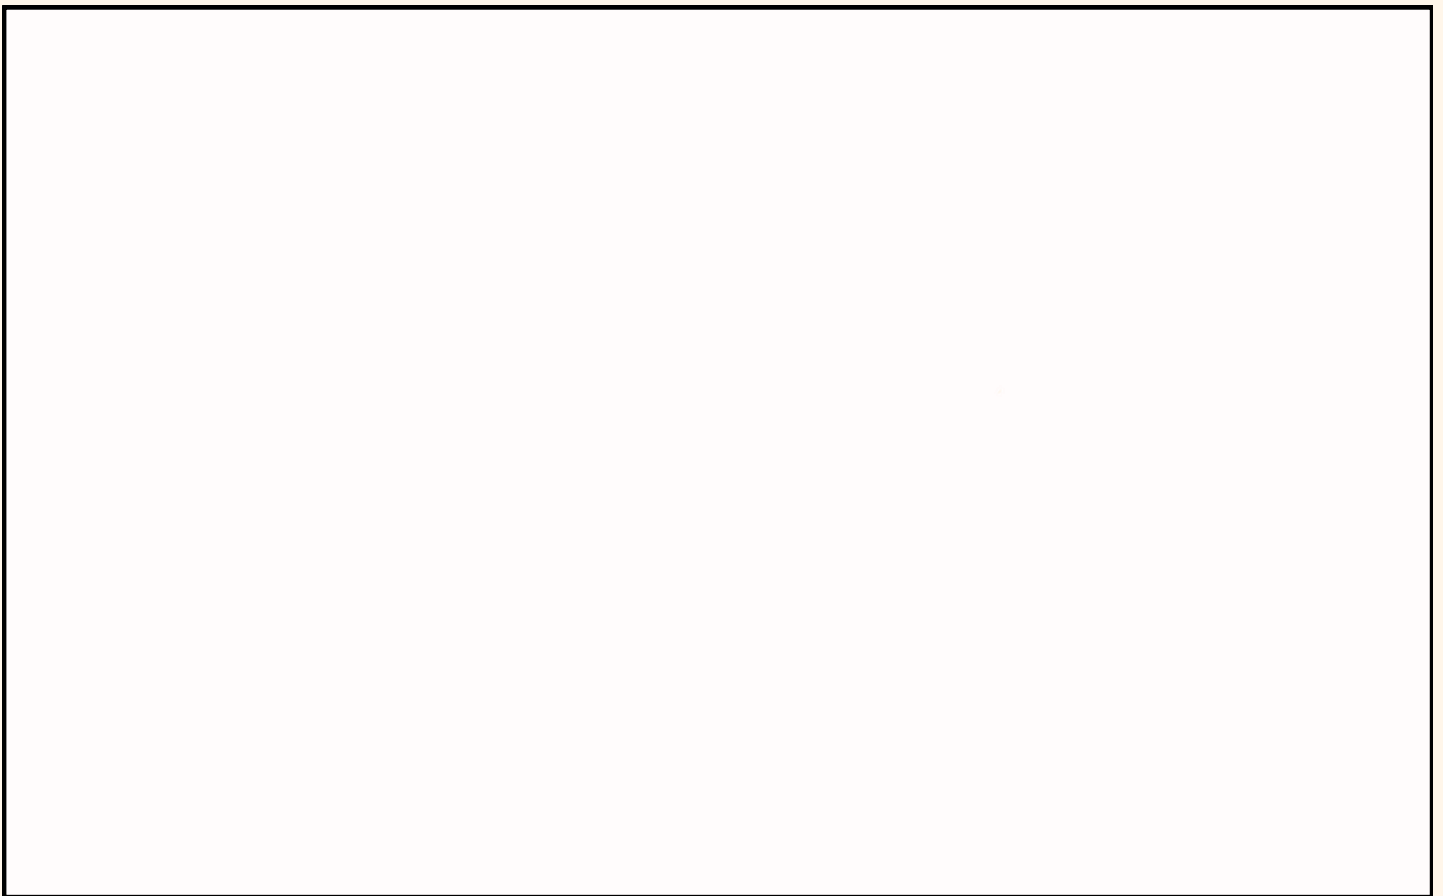

You can paint

You can talk

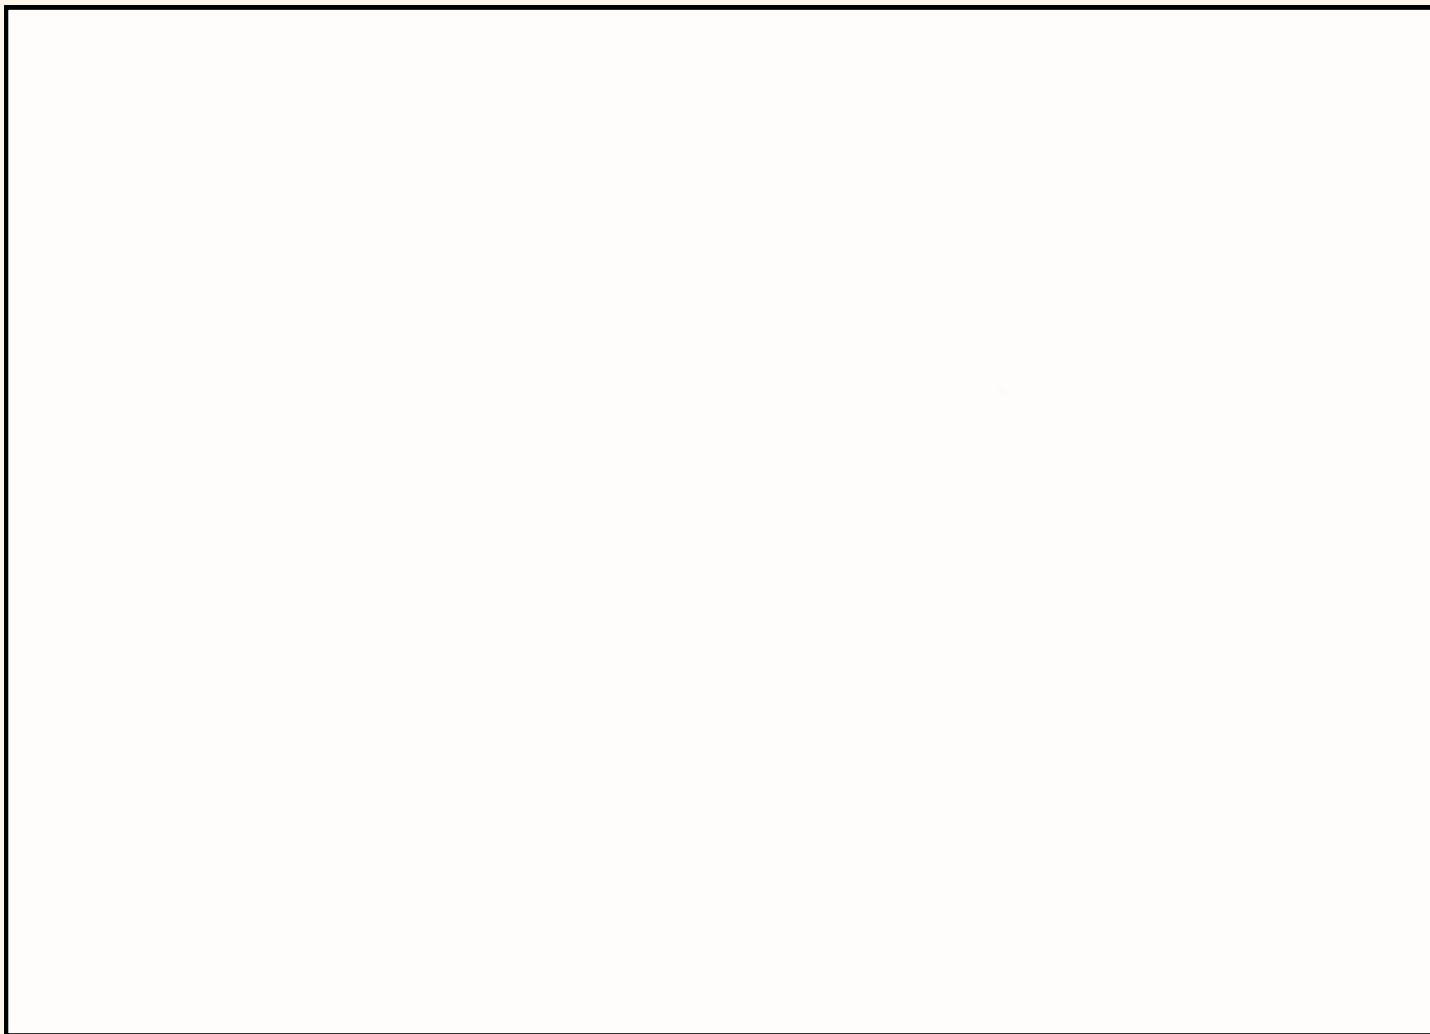

You can draw

You pick how you want to share your thoughts and feelings with your family

Draw your family in the space below

A large, empty rectangular box with a black border, intended for drawing a family.

Draw your friends in the space below

Do I have to go to the meeting?

No, you don't have to go if you don't want to; it is your choice. Before the meeting, your Family Group Conference person will visit you to talk about it.

They can help share the thoughts at the meeting if you don't want to speak be there.

What happens at the meeting?

1. Your social worker will talk about why the meeting is happening and what needs to happen to make things better.

Your Family Group Conference person or advocate will share your thoughts and feelings with your family with your permission.

2. Your family are left alone to talk and listen to each other, and they will ensure your wishes and feelings are included in the plan, which you can agree with too.

Your family will make a plan that keeps you safe and happy.

3. Your family share the plan with your social worker and your Family Group Conference person.

Everyone agrees the plan is good and helps you and your family.
